

Strengthening Public Participation on Environmental Management in Indonesia

July 10-11, 2012
Jakarta, Indonesia

Planning Team: MOE

- EIA Division
 - Deputy Imam Ismojo
 - Ary Sudijanto
 - Laksmi Widjayanti
 - Erik Teguh Primiontoro
 - Sena Pradyoto
 - Venita Rachma
- Public Participation Division
 - Deputy Ilyas Asaad
 - Sony Bangun Laksono
 - Waty
 - Nurul Jannah

Planning Team: Other Organizations

- Rakhi Kasat, Indonesia Program Manager, USEPA
- Cheryl Wasserman, Senior EIA Technical Expert, USEPA
- Shereen Kandil, Public Participation Expert, USEPA
- Milag Ballesteros, Regional Program Manager, Eco-Asia

Objectives

- Gain a common understanding of the basic principles of public participation in addressing environmental concerns/ issues
- Share the key features and foundations of the EPA's Public Participation Guide
- Share best practices, challenges, and strategies in engaging the public in Indonesia, particularly related to EIA procedures
- Develop the building blocks for strategies for communication and coordination among government officials and key stakeholders
- Discuss MOE's draft public participation strategy and EIA guidelines on public participation

Ground Rules

- Stay on target
- Participate! (and allow others do so)
- Safe space for discussion
- Respect the experience of others
- Move beyond challenges
- Be on time
- Manage your technology
- Parking lot

Logistics

- Lunch
- Bathrooms
- Breaks